OLD MEXICO OF TODAY

APR 23 1921

1. Mexice City, whose beginning dates back to the Twelfth Century, can lay claim to being the oldest city on the American continent.
2. The Reader who believes that the romantic Mexice of old with its fabulous ~~wealth~~ wealth still exists is doomed to disappointment for the Capital today is like any other modern city.
3. THE CATHEDRAL is the largest and most imposing church edifice in the Republic.
4. THE NATIONAL PAWN SHOP and THE PLAZA DE CONSTITUCION. Two of Mexice City's landmarks.
5. The NATIONAL THEATRE.
6. PALACIO DE COMUNICACIONES, building of Public Works.
7. MINISTRY OF THE INTERIOR, completed in 1906.
8. The old JOCKEY CLUB is now a popular American restaurant.
9. THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES where President Obregon took his oath of office on Dec., 1, 1920.
10. THE BENITO JUAREZ MONUMENT was erected in 1910 to commemorate the 100th anniversary of Mexican Independence.
11. INDEPENDENCE MONUMENT, on the Paseo de la Reforma, was begun in 1901 and completed nine years later at a cost of $2,154,000.
12. THE ALAMEDA is a handsome sub-tropical park which is bathed daily in plenty of sunshine and beautiful music.
13. A short distance away from the Mexican metropolis looms the church of the sacred city of Mexice, Guadalupe.
14. An old aqueduct at Guadalupe.
15. At San Juan Teotihuacan are the pyramids resembling in many ways their Egyptian counterparts.
16. XOCHIMILCO Indians paddle along this canal in their clumsy crafts among flower burdened islands which were once floating.
17. CHAPULTEPEC CASTLE caps the summit of Grasshepper Hill.
18. Stretching out beneath and around the castle is one of Mexice's most picturesque parks.
19. And indeed Mexice City is not unlike any other large place for when Sunday arrives Chapultepec Park is filled with excursionists.
20. Glorious were the days of Mectezuma and Cortes ---- Mexice has much to remember and be proud of.
